

2009 FALL HITTING SCHOOL

“We are very excited about the opportunity to work with you in our fall hitting school. The school is designed to assist in the development of each student’s swing and approach to hitting. Please join us.”
-Chuck Box, Prep Head Baseball Coach

Date: Tuesday, October 20, 27; November 3, 10, 17

Objective: The hitting school will concentrate on providing each player with individual instruction tailored to his needs. Video software will be used to break down hitters’ swings and provide instruction through video analysis.

Ages: First through seventh grade

Cost: $125 per student for the five-week school

Staff: Chuck Box and selected Jackson Prep coaching staff members

Pre-registration only with sessions limited to 12-15 students per session.
A Jackson Prep baseball staff member will contact you with your session time.
The hitting school will take place in the Manning Center on campus.
