PREP ALUM SPEAKS AT GREAT LEADERS FORUM

Dr. Lily Yang recently spoke at the Jackson Prep Great Leaders Forum. The forum was sponsored by the school's Global Leadership Institute. Dr. Yang was Valedictorian of the Jackson Prep Class of 1984 and is currently an assistant professor at the Tulane University School of Medicine. Dr. Yang challenged Jackson Prep 8th graders to be leaders of exemplary character. Her personal stories highlighted the importance of being a person of honor and integrity, and she expressed the value of being a team player. She reminded the students that all people need others in order to attain success in life and to fulfill their dreams.
