

ATTENTION! ATTENTION! ATTENTION!

Announcing three additional camps to be offered this summer at JACKSON PREP:

MathCounts, Calligraphy, and Learn to Crochet

The MathCounts camp will focus on problem-solving techniques. It will include relatively simple probability, algebra, and geometry, but these are not prerequisites. Students interested in math competitions should find the course helpful. Participants receive cash awards for punctuality, attendance, and effort! Sam Watson is back for his second year as the instructor.

Dates: July 12-16, 2010

Times: 9:00-11:30 a.m.

Grades: Rising 6th-8th Grades

Cost: $125

Delve into the peaceful study of calligraphy – “beautiful writing” – an art which can be enjoyed by teens and adults alike. Whether your goal is to simply try something new or create works for others, this is the place to begin. The clinic offered at Jackson Prep will provide for the beginner materials, style methodology, and one-on-one guided practice in learning the Italic script. Participants will leave with foundational proficiency in both the tools and the script with which to create personal projects in the future. Suzanne W. Smith is an educator and calligrapher. She has provided calligraphy for customers in Mississippi, Alabama, and Louisiana over the past 13 years.

Dates: June 28 – July 2, 2010

Times: 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Grades: Rising 7th – adult

Cost: $130 (includes supplies); $220 family package

Crocheting is an easy and enjoyable hobby to develop. At this clinic, enter with no prior skill and leave with a scarf! Basic skills will be taught to participants of all ages. Instructor: Suzanne W. Smith.

Dates: June 7-8, 2010 (Session I) or

Times: 9:00-11:30 a.m.

July 12-13, 2010 (Session II)
